

Jeremy Filmer-Bennett

I have had a varied career in hospitality, publishing, Industrial Relations, running my own businesses and representational roles for and on behalf of the business community at European, national, regional, and local government levels. During this time I have held positions as a trustee on such organisations as Hospiscare, Beaford Arts and Devon Wheels to Work. I now live with my family in Roachill, love the area and care about the local community.