We are pleased to launch our 2019 Regional Seminar Schedule.

Midlands here and the speakers for the 21st March seminar/meeting taking place in the South West here

We will be hosting 7 regional seminars/networking meetings hosted at local authorities around the country focusing on key rural topics including Rural Housing, Rural Economy and Health and Wellbeing.

These events are free to RSN paying members and this includes RHCA members.

For more information about all of the seminars please see our 2019 flyer.

You can also see the speakers for the first seminar taking place on yesterday in the East and the speakers for the 21st March seminar/meeting taking place in the South West here

WHAT'S NEW THIS WEEK AT RSN HQ!

On Wednesday, Brian Wilson will represent RSN at the Rural Coalition meeting. The Rural Coalition brings together 12 national organisations who subscribe to a vision for a living and working countryside in England.

Monday saw the second of our Regional Seminars in the West Midlands which took place thanks to our kind hosts Stafford Borough Council. It focused on the Rural Economy and some lively debate took place!

We are now looking forward to our next Regional Seminar which will be held in the South West on the 21st of March and is kindly hosted by East Devon District Council. This seminar will feature on 'Rural Housing' and further details which includes how to book onto the event can be found here

New research has been launched in the Observatory section of the RSN website. This latest analysis presents data from the Department for Transport showing the frequency with which residents do any walking or cycling for a chosen local authority, and whether it is for leisure or travel. The local authority position is compared to class and classification averages. Access this research here

LATEST RESEARCH & COMMENTARY

The Brexit vote in rural communities

There's a new podcast available from Carole Walker.

This episode, is titled 'The Brexit vote in rural communities' and features George Freeman, MP for Mid-Norfolk and a former minister, who details why so many people in rural communities voted for Brexit and are in despair at the endless bickering over the decision to leave the EU

Access the podcast here

That it costs more to deliver health and care in rural areas is well-rehearsed among RSN members. But how much more does it actually cost to deliver in rural areas and are these costs recognised in current funding formulae?
