Dear Devon Parish & Town Council Key Contact,

I am contacting you to inform you of a free event coming up that your Councillors or Community Response Team members, flood wardens etc. may wish to attend concerning community resilience.

This event will include workshops and presentations from a variety of organisations and provide you with an opportunity to share ideas and network with other communities involved in the creation of their community emergency plans; share knowledge, and learn from collective experience.

Presentations and areas covered include

- Understanding the Met Office public forecasting and warning service.
- Helping vulnerable people; dos and don'ts.
- Tools for local understanding and buy-in for about the need for community resilience.
- Community case studies.

The Devon Community Resilience Forum will be meeting on Thursday the 13th June at

Bishops Nympton Parish Hall,
Spire Lake Close,
Bishops Nympton,
South Molton,
EX36 4NY

To book a place on this event simply email Devon Communities Together at info@devoncommunities.org.uk confirming attendee details, their email address and as lunch and refreshments will be provided, any special dietary requirements you would like to make us aware of.

The event is sponsored by the Environment Agency, Devon County Council, Devon & Cornwall Police and Devon and Somerset Fire and Rescue and organised by Devon Communities Together. We hope you take the opportunity to benefit from this forum event.

You can book places now via Eventbrite on the link below
